“FOR THE KIDS” DINNER AUCTION A HOME RUN!

Praise God for such an outpouring of support for our first ever “For the Kids” Dinner Auction on September 3rd! Hosted at the south Austin Texas Star Meeting & Event Center, we had over 200 guests come out on a Thursday evening before Labor Day weekend. They enjoyed Rudy’s Barbeque and mingled up and down the silent auction tables that were filled with over 150 items. The bidding was fast and furious for a wide variety of items in the Men’s, Youth, Art, Sports, Eats and Entertainment, and Women’s sections. But that was nothing compared to the electric atmosphere surrounding the bidding for the Live Auction items! Our professional auctioneer and staff helped liven up the evening with the help of the always comfortable with a microphone Area Director Reagan Lambert. There was playful banter back and forth as the auction items were described. Some of the more high suspense bidding went on for the Texas/OU tickets, the UT season tickets for football, baseball, and basketball, and the Tom Brady and Kurt Warner autographed NFL helmets. All told, it was a home run as fun was had by all, 20 summer camp scholarships were donated, and FCA exceeded its forecasted amount to raise from this event. Just wait until next year!

FCA MEANS IMPACT!

FCA Area Rep Trevor Larson has been asking our FCA Central Texas kids and coaches to tell him what kind of impact FCA has had on their lives...here are some of the responses:

FCA is how I came to know King Jesus! -Todd

FCA has impacted my life by allowing me to spread Jesus throughout school, and keeping me on fire for God. -Brooke

FCA has motivated me and held me accountable to strive for excellence and reach my potential in advancing the Kingdom of God. -Jake

FCA is what keeps me in the business of coaching. -Tim
