FCA MEANS IMPACT!

FCA Area Rep Trevor Larson has been asking our FCA Central Texas kids and coaches to tell him what kind of impact FCA has had on their lives...here are some of the responses:

I enjoy seeing my classmates' lives changed because of FCA—Dawn

FCA has made my relationship grow deeper with Jesus—Kyle

FCA has allowed me to make an impact on others that I would not have had a chance to if I was not involved—Chase

My parents don't allow me to go to church. FCA is my time to learn and grow in God—Issac

ROUND ROCK HIGH SCHOOL ROCKS!

They came in waves...FCA "Fields of Faith" at Round Rock High School's field house was off to a great start. Middle schools, church youth groups, FCA Huddle groups, and friends gathered Wednesday evening October 14th. Many of the elements of an impactful event focused on living out the Christian faith were there...fellowship time with pizza and cookies, praise and worship time, testimonies from FCA students on how Christ has impacted their lives, and words of encouragement from Texas-Ex Kirk Dressendorfer. He pitched three years for UT until he was drafted by the Oakland A's. Dressendorfer, an inductee of the College Baseball Hall of Fame, stressed two things to the kids which were important for them to hear. First, that through all the success he had what really mattered to him was getting to Heaven and bringing as many with you as you can. Second, that he faithfully attended Sunday chapel through his time in the big leagues which allowed him to show his team how he faced adversity which then drew his teammates to inquire about his faith. After Dressendorfer's remarks, the field house gym was filled with kids huddled in groups praying.

Much of the night was organized and encouraged by Coach Rodney Williams in cooperation with local youth pastors and FCA Huddle coaches. A great example of FCA and the church working together!
