SHARING THE VICTORY RADIO PROGRAM ANNOUNCES WINNER OF RADIO CONTEST

One Listener and Guest are Headed to February 1st Football Game in Tampa, Florida

(Kansas City, MO) – Sharon Geraghty, a “Sharing the Victory” listener from Traverse City, Michigan, was announced as the winner of the program’s first radio contest on Saturday, January 17th by producer, Bill Bumpas and FCA President Les Steckel during the weekly broadcast. Geraghty and her 16-year-old son Kevin will receive an all expense paid trip to Tampa, Florida, including 2 tickets to the Super Bowl in a private suite on the 50 yard-line.

Over 700 listeners participated in the 10-week contest in which on-air “codes” were read during each week’s program, allowing individuals to enter. Along with a free, 3-issue subscription to the FCA magazine, each entry had the opportunity to win this once-in-a-lifetime trip. Sharon correctly responded with the weekly code word while listening to her local station WLJN, allowing her to be randomly chosen from all of the entrants and notified on-air.

“Are you kidding? We’re going to Tampa?” said Sharon. “Oh, that is awesome! I can’t believe it! Thank you so much, I’m really excited.”

Joined by Les Steckel and his wife Chris, Sharon and Kevin will have a first-hand view of the game in the comfort of a private suite, along with lodging, transportation, and meals.

“We’re so excited to be able to provide this once-in-a-life-time experience for Sharon. She was so surprised when she found out she was the winner,” said “Sharing the Victory” producer Bill Bumpas. “Not only will Sharon and her son, Kevin, have a wonderful time watching the Super Bowl from a luxury suite, but they will also enjoy the sounds and sights of Tampa, Florida. We want to thank all of our station affiliates for creating so much excitement during the contest. We had an overwhelming response.”
