

Patrick Nix

Patrick was a standout quarterback on the Auburn University football team leading the team to a perfect 11-0 record in 1993. He graduated in 1995 as the school's leader in passing efficiency.

He began his coaching career as an assistant at Jacksonville State and went on to be head coach at Henderson State. He later became the receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at Samford University; and the running backs coach, recruiting coordinator, offensive coordinator, and quarterbacks coach at Georgia Tech. The team made appearances in the ACC Championship Game and Gator Bowl under his play-calling.

He was also the offensive coordinator for the Miami Hurricanes.

He's married to the former Krista Chapman and they have four children.

The FCA Tradition

THE FCA VISION

To see the world impacted for Christ through the influence of athletes & coaches.

THE FCA MISSION

To present to athletes, coaches & all whom they influence, the challenge & adventure of receiving Jesus Christ as Savior & Lord, serving Him in their relationships & in the fellowship of the church.

OUR MINISTRIES

COACHES MINISTRY

At the heart of FCA are coaches. Our role is to minister to them by encouraging and equipping them to know and serve Christ.

CAMPUS MINISTRY

Student-led ministry on junior high, high school and college campuses that include Huddles, Team Bible Studies, & Chapel Programs.

CAMP MINISTRY

Camps are a time of "inspiration & perspiration" for athletes & coaches to reach their potential by offering comprehensive athletic, spiritual and leadership training.

COMMUNITY MINISTRY

Non-school based that ministries reach the community through partnerships with local churches, businesses, parents & volunteers that also allow the community to invest in athletes & coaches.

Rob Callistro

Throughout our five-county area we're sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ with coaches and athletes so He can impact their lives; whether they're on campus or in competition, God continues to do amazing things. We're asking you to pray about how God can use you to be a part of what He's doing on our 41 campuses. - Northwest Alabama FCA Representative

Roger Boswell

"The past has been great, but know the future is even brighter. I invite you to join with me, and be a part of the next great movement of God to sweep across the Tennessee Valley." - North Alabama FCA Director/UNA Campus Director
