YSU-FCA GAME DAY 2008
 Steve McGranahan, guest speaker

Long-time FCA friend and supporter Steve McGranahan was this year's Game Day guest speaker. Steve, nicknamed "World's Strongest Red-neck" bent, ripped and twisted his way into everyone's heart with his amazing feats of strength. As he drew the audience in with his hand strength he led them straight to the source of his power—Jesus Christ.

The Game Day event took place in Beeghley Center on October 25th before the YSU football game. Attendees received FCA t-shirts donated by Denise DeBartolo-York. They also were treated to Chick-fil-A sandwiches as well as pop and candy. After the event, the group was given game tickets to the YSU football game.

OW2PLAY-ASSEMBLIES
 With Mike Cobb

FCA partnered with Sports World Ministries to bring former Youngstown native Mike Cobb to the Valley to speak at area schools about making positive choices.

After graduating from North High School, Mike was recruited to play football at Michigan State where he was a four-year letterman. Mike was drafted in first round of the 1977 draft by the Cincinnati Bengals. He also played 5 seasons as tight-end for the Chicago Bears.

YSU FOOTBALL HUDDLE
 Huddle Coach Lance Hartshorn

It has been a challenging year for the Penguin Football family. Through the loss of a coach and more injuries than we want to count, young hearts are seeking truth. Lasting peace can only be found through a growing relationship in Jesus Christ.

During weekly meetings, players and coaches traveled to Israel through a video series and now have asked to study God's design for marriage. Each week the group grows in their walk with the Lord.
