Ole Miss FCA News

Monthly e-newsletter for the University of Mississippi Fellowship of Christian Athletes

Winter 2010

Volume 1, Issue 5

Ole Miss FCA kicked off the spring semester with our weekly Huddle meeting and Jason Cook gave a challenging message on what it means to be a "disciple"; a follower of Christ. This semester our entire focus will be on what it means to be a "disciple" and how we can actively take the necessary steps to follow hard after God.

A large part of being a "disciple" is being a man or woman of prayer. I (Todd) have personally been praying specific scripture for my wife, daughter, and many others and have seen many answers already to those prayers. I am continually challenged and encouraged to become more and more a man who depends on the Lord in all areas of my life and ministry. I am reminded of Psalm 127:1, "Unless the Lord builds the house, its builders labor in vain. Unless the Lord watches over the city, the watchmen stand guard in vain." Unless we depend upon the Lord, we are wasting our time and energy and will not make an eternal difference. John 15:5 says, "I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing."

I don't know about you, but I want to see more and more fruit. Many seeds have been planted in the lives of athletes, coaches, and those with whom we are in contact. I ask that you would join us in prayer for our ministry, the Ole Miss campus, and those we influence. The best way for you to be involved is to pray specifically for us. In order to help you participate with us, please email me of your interest and I will send out a weekly email with specific requests as well as a devotional to encourage, inspire, and challenge you in your relationship with God.

Thank you on behalf of our entire staff for your prayers, encouragement, and financial gifts which give us the opportunity to share the gospel with the athletes here at Ole Miss.
