

Virginia Tech Football Team Chaplain: Combining with a Higher Power

What will it take to put the Heart and Soul in sports? It is taking the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) and it will take YOUR HELP. The Virginia Tech FCA Leadership Board invites you to join the 2009 campaign by supporting this important initiative. Johnny Shelton, Virginia Tech Football Team Chaplain, has established a track record of positive impact in players' lives. His work and message has priceless value to the players, to the community, and to the football team.

Our committee seeks one hundred people who will give a thousand dollars and one thousand people who will give one hundred dollars. Will YOU help by being one of those people?

If you are unable to support the program at this level you can still help. A donation in ANY AMOUNT helps support this project! Your service and support is more important than the amount. Our committee wants more "soldiers" than "officers" in support of this project. Every contributor shares equally in the benefits of the Team Chaplain Program.
